The director may fix the upset price and other conditions of the contract subject to these regulations. If no tender is received the timber so advertised may be disposed of at private sale at not less than the upset price at which the sale was advertised.

31. Each person submitting a tender for timber advertised under these regulations shall be required to deposit with his tender an amount equal to not less than one-fifth of the total dues at the upset price on the quantity of timber to be sold when the total does not exceed $5,000, and one-tenth when the total exceeds that amount. (b.) The purchaser shall keep a record of the timber cut either by scale, count, or measurement, as may be specified on forms prescribed by the Department, and such record shall be open to inspection by any forest officer at any time. Sworn returns shall also be furnished quarterly by the purchaser showing the quantity of timber cut, and payment of the dues on the timber so reported shall be made at these quarterly periods. The deposit made with the tender shall be retained and applied in settlement of the two last quarterly returns, and all deposits in excess of the amount found to be due shall be refunded when the sale is closed. Sales shall be closed by the director on the report of the forest officer in charge to the effect that all conditions of the contract have been complied with.

(c.) Contracts may be cancelled by the Minister for failure to comply with the conditions of the same, and all deposits shall be forfeited on such cancellation.

32. The director may require that bonds be given for the fulfilment of the conditions of the contract whenever in his opinion it is desirable.

33. No person to whom a sale of timber has been made, as provided for in section 28, shall be eligible to tender on another sale during the term of the contract of sale except within a period of six months prior to the expiration thereof and unless the conditions of the contract have been complied with.

SEIZURES.

34. All timber cut within a forest reserve without proper authority shall be liable to seizure, whether in the possession of the person by whom it was cut or of any other persons, and whether it has or has not been removed from the reserve; and the person by whom the timber was cut shall, in the discretion of the Minister, forfeit all right to obtain a permit within a forest reserve, in addition to any other penalty provided by "The Forest Reserves Act," or by these regulations. Unless the person who cut the timber can establish to the satisfaction of the officer in charge of the forest reserve that the cutting was done without wilful intent to contravene the regulations, the timber shall be confiscated and may be disposed of by public auction after proper advertisement, and, if no bid equal to the amount due the Government is received, may be disposed of by private sale. If it is established that the cutting was done without wilful intent to contravene the regulations, the timber may be released on payment of a fine equivalent to at least double dues on the timber seized, which may be collected whether the timber is partly covered by permit or not.

35. If timber has been cut on a forest reserve without authority, and has been removed beyond the reach of the forest officers, the person responsible for the cutting, whether done by himself or some person employed by him, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one dollar and not exceeding three dollars for each tree unlawfully cut. If the person responsible for cutting the timber unlawfully can establish that the cutting was done without wilful intent to infringe the regulations, he may be relieved from further liability by the Minister on payment of at least double dues on the quantity cut, as determined by the forest officer.

GRAZING OF LIVE-STOCK.

36. Permits for a period not to exceed one year for the grazing of live-stock on forest reserves may be granted by the Director of Forestry, or any forest officer acting under his instructions, except where it may be determined by the Minister that the exclusion of stock is necessary for the protection of the reserve.

37. The number and kind of stock which may be grazed upon each grazing district in each reserve, and the period during which the grazing will be permitted, shall be determined for each year by the Director of Forestry.

38. Applications for the grazing of stock shall be made to the officer in charge of the reserve. Any applications received after the first day of March shall be entitled to consideration only after the applications received prior to such date have been satisfied or disposed of. Applications for grazing permits must be made on the form prescribed by the Director of Forestry for that purpose, and must give the information called for by such form, including the brands for the identification of the stock.

39. In considering applications for grazing permits on a forest reserve the following classes of applicants shall be considered in the following order of preference:—

CLASS I.—Persons owning and residing upon improved ranch or farm property near a forest reserve who are dependent on the forest reserve for range for their stock and who do not own more stock than the grazing unit for the district.

CLASS 3.—Persons who do not own improved property near the forest reserve or who are not dependent on the forest reserve for range.

Applications from persons in Class 3 may be refused if the applications from persons in Classes 1 and 2 are for a number of stock equal to the maximum fixed by the director under section 37 of these regulations.

40. An office fee of 25 cents shall be required before any permit is issued. The Director of Forestry shall fix the dues for grazing permits for each forest reserve. The minimum dues for a grazing permit for cattle or horses shall be 5 cents per head per month, and the maximum shall be 10 cents per head per month, but no permit shall be granted for less than 25 cents per head.

The rate of dues charged for sheep shall be one-fourth of that charged for cattle.

If the tract to be grazed is enclosed by a fence the dues for a grazing permit may be increased to 25 cents per head per month or $1 per head for the season.

The fees and dues in connection with any permit must be paid in full before the permit is issued.

Only stock six months old or over will be counted in the determination of the dues for a permit.

41. The Director of Forestry may establish a fixed number of stock as a grazing unit for each forest reserve, the basis of the minimum unit being the number of stock which can be carried during the winter in connection with a homestead or small ranch; and the number of persons to whom permits for grazing stock are issued in any grazing district may be increased to the number of grazing units which will be supported by the maximum limit for the grazing district, and the number of stock grazed on the district by any one person may be reduced to the grazing unit on such scale of reduction as may be fixed by the director, but any such reduction shall be made only at the close of a grazing season and shall not in any one year exceed 20% of the total number of stock grazed in the grazing district by such person under permit.

42. All cattle and horses over six months old must be branded being permitted to graze on the forest reserve.

43. When a permittee wishes to drive stock on the reserve he must before doing so give at least two weeks' notice to the forest ranger or the officer in charge of the reserve, by mail or otherwise, stating the number of stock to be driven in. Similar notice must also be given when the stock are to be removed.

44. At the expiration of the permit the permittee shall remove his stock from the reserve, and if this is not done within fifteen days after the expiration of the permit the forest ranger or the officer in charge of the reserve may have the stock removed and the Department will assume no responsibility for the loss of the stock or for damage occasioned by them.

45. Any stock removed from the reserve before the expiration of the permit may be replaced by other stock, to an equal number, owned by the permittee.

46. If the stock are sold during the term of the permit the permit shall be surrendered and a new permit for the unexpired portion of the term will be issued free of dues to the purchaser of the stock.

47. All stock grazed under permit must be supplied with salt at such places and in such manner as may be designated by the forest ranger.

48. The carcasses of any animals on the reserves which die of infectious diseases must be burned, and any carcasses which are in the vicinity of any supply or body of water or any habitation must be removed or buried by the owner in accordance with the instructions of the forest ranger.

49. Permits for driving stock across a reserve may be granted by the forest officer in charge of the reserve on such conditions as he may deem necessary.

50. Any breach of the regulations or conditions of the permit by a permittee, or failure to comply with the instructions of the officer in charge of the reserve or of the forest ranger, shall render the permit liable to cancellation and, in the discretion of the Minister, the privilege of obtaining any further or other permit shall be withdrawn.

51. Any damage done to improvements on a forest reserve shall be repaired by the person responsible for such damage whether the damage is the result of his own action, or the action of any person employed by him, or of stock owned by him.

52. When it is considered necessary for the prevention of injury or contamination to any sources of water-supply, the officer in charge of the reserve may take such action as may be necessary for its protection and for that purpose may provide for the exclusion of stock therefrom by fencing or otherwise.

53. Any person owning or leasing unfenced land within a forest reserve who waives the right to the exclusive use of such land may be granted a permit free of dues for a number of stock equal to the number which can be carried on such land under the regulations for granting leases for grazing purposes on Dominion lands, namely, one head of cattle or horses for each twenty acres.

54. Whenever any live-stock association whose membership includes a majority of the owners of any class of live-stock using a forest reserve or portion thereof shall appoint a committee, an agreement on the part of which shall be binding upon the association, such committee, upon application to the director, may be recognized as an advisory board for the association, and shall then be entitled to receive notice of proposed action and have an opportunity to be heard by the local forest officer in reference to increase or decrease in the number of stock to be allowed for any year, the division of the range between different classes or stock or their owners, or the adoption of special rules to meet local conditions.

GRAZING TRESPASS.

55. The owner of any stock grazing on a forest reserve without a permit shall be liable to at least four times the regulation rate of dues for the number of stock so grazing unless he can establish that the trespass was made without wilful intent, in which case at least double dues shall be charged.

DISPOSAL OF HAY.

56. Permits for cutting wild grass for hay on forest reserves may be granted by the director or any officer acting under his instructions.

57. No permit shall be granted for a period greater than one year, and no permit shall be transferable. The cutting of hay shall not be permitted before the twenty-fifth day of July in any year, or such other date as may be fixed by the officer in charge of the forest reserve.

58. Any actual settler residing in the vicinity of a forest reserve may be granted a permit for hay for use by stock owned by him on paying therefor at the rate of 10 cents per ton.

(b.) Permits may be granted to cut hay for barter or sale at the rate of 50 cents per ton, but such permits shall not be granted until after the twenty-fifth day of July in any year, or such other date as may be fixed by the officer in charge as provided for in the preceding section.

(c.) The fee for a permit shall be 25 cents. The fee and dues in connection with a permit must be paid in full before the permit is issued, and all previous permits must have been returned.

59. Application for permits of hay may be received at any time after the first day of January, and permits may be granted at any time after the first day of April.

60. In case two or more applications are received on or before the first day of April in any year for permits to cut hay on one parcel of land, the officer in charge of the forest reserve shall have authority to make a division among the applicants or to put up the right to a permit to tender.

61. Any breach of the regulations by a permittee, or failure to comply with the instructions of the officer in charge of the reserve or of the forest ranger, shall render the permit liable to cancellation and, in the discretion of the Minister, the privilege of obtaining any further or other permit shall be withdrawn.

SEIZURES.

62. All hay cut within a forest reserve without proper authority shall be liable to seizure, whether in the possession of the person by whom it was cut or of any other person, and whether it has or has not been removed from the reserve; and the person by whom the hay was cut shall, in the discretion of the Minister, forfeit all right to obtain permit within a forest reserve in addition to any other penalty provided by "The Forest Reserve Act" or by these regulations.

(b.) Unless the person who cut the hay can establish to the satisfaction of the officer in charge of the forest reserve that the cutting was done without wilful intent to contravene the regulations, the hay shall be confiscated and may be disposed of by public auction after proper advertisement, and, if no bid equal to the amount due the Government is received, may be disposed of by private sale.

(c.) If it is established that the cutting was done without wilful intent to contravene the regulations, the hay may be released on payment of a fine equivalent to at least double dues on the hay seized, which may be collected whether the hay is partly covered by permit or not.

63. If hay has been cut on a forest reserve without authority, and has been removed beyond the reach of the forest officers, the person responsible for the cutting, whether done by himself or some person employed by him, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $1 and not exceeding $3 for each ton of hay unlawfully cut.

(b.) If the person responsible for cutting the hay unlawfully can establish that the cutting was done without intent to infringe the regulations, he may be relieved from further liability by the Minister on payment of at least double dues on the quantity cut, as determined by the forest officer.

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Wednesday, the 24th day of September, 1913.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR IN COUNCIL.

THE Acting Minister of the Interior states, under date 12th September, 1913, that the late C. E. J. Leighton, formerly of Savona, B.C., made application to purchase, under irrigation conditions, the N. $\frac{1}{2}$ of the N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 36, in the Twentieth Township, in the Twenty-first Range, west 6th Meridian, and after careful consideration it was decided to permit him to purchase the above-mentioned land at \$1.00 per acre, on the following conditions:—

(1) Twenty-five cents per acre on the total area of 80 acres, to be paid within thirty days:

(2) The applicant to have his irrigation scheme in successful operation within two years from the 1st instant, and to show, within that period, to the satisfaction of the Department that he has successfully carried out the reclamation of all the irrigable portions of the said lands:

(3) On the expiration of the period allowed the applicant for the completion of his scheme, and upon the receipt of a report from an officer of this Department that the said scheme has been successfully completed and is in successful operation, the applicant to pay to the Department the balance of 75 cents per acre, and upon the payment of such amount, patent to be issued for the land:

(4) Provided that, should the applicant fail to make payment as set out in condition (1), the land shall be released from any claim by him, and should the applicant fail to carry out the reclamation of these lands, as set out in condition (2), all money paid under condition (1) shall be forfeited to the Crown, and the lands released from any claim by him.

The Minister further states that on the 7th May, 1913, Mrs. N. C. Leighton, administratrix of the estate of the late C. E. J. Leighton, advised the Department of the Interior that the conditions attached to the sale of the above-mentioned land has been fulfilled and that she was prepared to pay the balance due the Department:

That the Assistant Engineer of the Hydrographic Survey of the Railway Belt of British Columbia, inspected this project on the 10th July, 1913, and in his report of the 15th idem he states that practically all the irrigable land is under cultivation; between one-third and half a mile of ditch has been constructed from Three-mile Creek to the cultivated land, that the land has been fenced, and that in his opinion the conditions under which the sale was made to the late Mr. Leighton have been complied with.

The Minister recommends in view of the favourable report of the Assistant Engineer of the Hydrographic Survey of the Railway Belt of British Columbia, that the sale of the above-mentioned land at the rate of $1.00 per acre be confirmed, and upon payment of the balance of the purchase money that letters patent be issued.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

oc16 RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

[2349]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Wednesday, the 24th day of September, 1913.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR IN COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency the Administrator in Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

Section 75 of the Regulations relating to Forest Reserves established by the Order in Council of the 8th August, 1913, is hereby rescinded and the following section substituted therefor:—

SECTION 75.

The Minister may establish townsites in forest reserves in his discretion, may subdivide the townsites into lots and may lease the lots, fixing rentals and term of payment, subject to the following conditions:—

(a) The lease of each lot shall be subject to the lessee's entering into an agreement to erect within one year a building satisfactory to the Forest Officer in charge of the reserve, and no lease shall be issued until the terms of the agreement have been complied with. Agreements shall not be transferable. Failure to fulfil an agreement shall render it liable to cancellation.

(b) If the townsite is being established in connection with mining or other industrial operations, the company carrying on such operations, may be permitted by the Minister to lease such number of lots as may be necessary for the erection of buildings in connection with the operations, without restriction as to the buildings on individual lots.

(c) A suitable number of lots may be reserved by the Minister for public purposes.
